Abadie, C.: Clinical value of Bordet-Wassermann reaction 245
Abderhalden: Curious location of a skin disorder caused by intraperitoneal injection of a polypeptid 825
Abramowitz: Darier's disease 258
Zosteriform lichen planus of body 260
Abstractors for volume 4 of Archives of Dermatology and Syphilology 838 Acanthosis nigricans; G. H. Fox 125
nigricans, congenital, with diabetes mellitus, 2 cases; G. Miescher 541
Acne keloid; Sainz de Aja 712
two cases with rather unusual etiology; K. Hübschmann 701 vulgaris, roentgen-ray treatment of; H. H. Hazen and F. J. Eichenlaub..*671 vulgaris, roentgen-ray treatment; W. B. Witherbee and J. Remer, 113; J. M. Martin and C. L. Martin 821 Acrodermatitis atrophicans, accident as cause of arthritis deformans and; E. Meirowsky 545 chronic relapsing bullous and pustular acrodermatitis; Hudelo and Picard 393 of Hallopeau in child of 5 years; G. Thibierge and P. Legrain 112 Acrodynia, case of; P. W. Emerson 546
Actinomycosis atypica; K. Hübschmann 102 roentgenotherapy of; A. E. Ruete 545
Adams, J. E.: Treatment of erysipelas with brilliant green 106
Adams, W. B.: Cream of a year at Beirut *207
Adenitis, tuberculous, papulonecrotic, scrofuloderma; scrofulous gummas; Michelson 843 Adenoma sebaceum; E. G. G. Little 711 syringo-cyst adenoma; Ormsby and Mitchell 282
Adrenal line, white adrenal line (Sergent); its clinical significance; W. E. Kay and S. Brock 400
Afzelius, A.: Erythema chronicum migrans 380
Albinism, rare case of; V. Svestka 114
Aleurites moluccana, use of oil of Aleurites triloba or, in treatment of leprosy; J. T. Wayson 818
Alexander, A.: Development of carcinoma on psoriatic basis 835
Almkvist, J.: Comparison of action of mercury on body weight with that of arsphenamin 387
Histologic examination of mercuric skin alterations 826
What are parts played by mercury and bacteria, respectively, in pathogenesis of mercurial ulcerative stomatitis and colitis? 245
Aloi, V.: Myeloplaxoma of tongue 388
Alopecia areata; Gilmour 267
areata and syphilis; Sanz de Grado 274 areata and syphilis, especially hereditary; R. Sabouraud 825 areata treated with quartz lamps; H. Fox 130 congenital; Towle, 548; White 548
universal; Gilmour 267
Althabegoity: Syphilitic reinfection 393

Anemia, aplastic, and stomatitis due to neo-arsphenamin; J. E. Moore and A. Keidel *169 Angiosarcoma of lid; G. E. de Schweinitz 110
Anthracene workers; carcinoma cutis in; W. J. O'Donovan 695 Antisera, best method of obtaining precipitating antisera; W. D. Sutherland and G. C. Mitra 697
Antoni: Morphology of spirochaeta pallida studied in dark field 836
Anwyl-Davies, T.: Hemorrhagic purpura following therapeutic administration of neosalvarsan 705 Argyria, case of; Barthelemy and Danglemont 703 localized, case of; B. B. Beeson 106 Arsenic, erythroderma due to; Sainz de Aja 839 found microchemically and histologically in case of hyperkeratosis arsenicalis; R. Brünauer 821 genesis of carcinoma caused by; Ullmann 276 icterus, supervening 2 months after arsenico-mercurial treatment in case of secondary syphilis; resumption of arsenico-mercurial treatment; grave icterus; lethal exitus; P. Ravaut 244 influence of arsenical preparations on cutaneous tests; A. Strickler *177
keratosis due to; Bechet 127
Arsenobenzol, French arsenobenzol or galyl; Eisler 113
Arsphenamin and mercury compared; Kolle 275 comparison of action of mercury on body weight with that of arsphenamin; J. Almkvist 387 contribution to study; pemphigus foliaceus from arsphenamin; J. Nicolas and G. Massia 382 dermatitis; Chargin, 270; Gager 847
dosage; K. Biele 543 effect of intravenous administration of neo-arsphenamin, mercury and; R. A. Kilduffe 244
erythema; Sainz de Aja 712 experiences with sodium arsphenamin (diarsenol); H. E. Michelson and D. M. Siperstein *184 factors relating to toxic action; R. Hunt 94 icterus after arsenical treatment; L. Brocq, 115; Tachau 836 in pulmonary gangrene; B. Molnar, Jr 397 locally recurrent so-called "fixed" eruption after; E. Levin 833 modification of gravity method of administering arsphenamin; S. G. Gill. 710 nerve injuries due to errors in technic in making intravenous injections; D. Lewis 395 prevention of acute arsephenamin reactions by anti-anaphylaxis and atropin; G. J. Busman 383 preventive and curative treatment of nitritoid crisis; G. Milian 822 refractometric studies with serums of normal rabbits receiving intravenous injections of; K. Tokuda *616
silver; Escher 540
silver, preliminary report on therapeutic action; J. A. Fordyce *737 silver, review of literature and discussion of; H. E. Michelson and D. M. Siperstein *193 sodium, toxicity and trypanocidal activity of; J. F. Schamberg, J. A. Kolmer and W. D. Raiziss 395
